The Building Up Hearts @ Home: A Blueprint for Hope Conference launches a two-year training initiative to equip and empower local families, single adults and teens to reclaim their lives. For the next two years, San Antonians will enjoy low-cost access to the expertise of professionals who will reach our community through interactive and ongoing workshops, seminars, and community events.

Building Up Hearts @ Home: A Blueprint for Hope is sponsored in part by Live Powerfully Now Ministries, a family-focused organization determined to make a positive difference in our community, one life at a time.
